2019 High School English 3 for English Learners (ELS)

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

This program will focus on supporting the language and literacy development of rising 11th- grade English Language Learners who need high school credit for English 3. The course will present a wide range of reading experiences with print and non-print materials that have literary, informational, persuasive, and practical purposes. The course also requires students to use the writing process and criteria for effective writing to demonstrate their abilities to write in a variety of forms and for multiple audiences and purposes. Students use writing-to-learn and writing-to-demonstrate-learning strategies to make sense of their reading and thinking experiences. Speaking, listening, and observing skills are used to communicate information for a variety of authentic purposes. In addition, students continue to integrate inquiry skills and technology to communicate ideas. Course adheres to Kentucky Core Academic Standards requirements.

PROGRAM NAME:

2019 High School ESL 2 for English Learners (ELS)

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

This program will focus on supporting the language and literacy development of rising 9th and 10th- grade English Language Learners who need to take ESL 2. The textbook for this course is Edge. According to Dr. Short, one of the authors, "The Essential Question is the driver for each unit in Edge. It sets a theme for the readings and engages the students in higher-order thinking. Without a right or wrong answer, students can linger over their response, discuss possibilities, write down their ideas, change or strengthen their opinions as they gain new information and insights from the readings which touch the topic from various angles. The pairing of a main selection with a related adjunct also bolsters the students' language development, as a theme is woven across texts and vocabulary is utilized in different contexts." The course will present a wide range of reading experiences with print and non-print materials that have literary, informational, persuasive, and practical purposes. Course adheres to Kentucky Core Academic Standards requirements.
