LAST MODIFIED DATE 10/10/2019

PURPOSE:

All applicants must submit the attached Notice of Intent to File a Charter School Application prior to submitting a complete application for either a Start-Up or Conversion Charter School. This provides formal notice to the Jefferson County Board of Education that the applicant listed intends to submit a proposal for a charter school to open in the Fall of 2021. This ensures that the applicant receives technical assistance and information in a timely fashion and that the application reviewers' expertise reflects any specialties noted in the applications.

All information presented in this notice is non-binding; however, intentional misrepresentation could result in denial or revocation after approval. As with all aspects of the application, the Notice of Intent to File a Charter School Application is public information and will be made available on the Jefferson County Public Schools (JCPS) webpage.

CHARTER SCHOOL APPLICATION INFORMATION

All Charter School Applicants

All Applicants must file a Notice of Intent to File a Charter School Application by NOON, on January 3, 2020. This is for both Start-Up and Conversion Charter Schools.

Start-Up Charter Schools

A Start-Up Charter School is a brand new school that is proposed by an Applicant. The Start-Up Charter School requires the following documentation:

- Notice of Intent to File a Charter School Application (by NOON, on January 3, 2020)
- Complete Kentucky Charter School Application and Addendum (by NOON, January 13, 2020)
 - Complete JCPS Charter School Addendum (by NOON, January 13, 2020)

Conversion Charter Schools

A Conversion Charter School is a school that existed as a traditional public school prior to becoming a charter school. A complete application for the creation of a conversion charter school shall include both a valid petition and a complete application submitted to the JCPS Executive Administrator of School Choice. Both processes require attention to detail – please read the Conversion Charter School Guidance carefully.

The Conversion Charter School process requires the following documentation:

- Notice of Intent to Convert an Existing Public School (prior to circulation of the petition)
- Completed petition with the required number of signatures to be verified by the District (by NOON, January 3, 2020)

After the petition is completed, verified, and filed with the Executive Administrator of School Choice, the following documents are required:

- Notice of Intent to File a Charter School Application (by NOON, January 3, 2020)
- Complete Kentucky Charter School Application and Addendum (by NOON, January 13, 2020)
 - Complete JCPS Charter School Addendum (by NOON, January 13, 2020)

The Board will only consider complete applications.
