ARTICLE III - RECOGNITION

The Employer recognizes the Union as official representative of regular, full-time and part-time (excluding initial probationary, temporary, seasonal and substitute) custodian, and housekeeping utility employees in Job Family IB for the purpose of exchanging information, opinions, and proposals to endeavor to reach collectively negotiated agreement on wage rates, duty hours, working conditions which have substantial economic impact on the employees, and procedures for settling disputes which may arise under this collectively negotiated (bargained) agreement.

ARTICLE IV - UNION RIGHTS

1. Dues Deduction and Fair Share Fee Section 1 shall not be applicable if all or any part thereof shall be in conflict with applicable law; provided however, that if all or any part of this Section becomes permissible by virtue of a change in applicable law, whether by legislative or judicial action, the provisions of this Section held valid shall immediately apply. The parties acknowledge that, at the time of execution of this Agreement, Section 1 is in conflict with applicable law.

Union membership dues, if any, of those eligible for representation shall be deducted in twenty-four (24) equal amounts from the paychecks of employees, except for those who notify the employer expressly and individually in writing within ten (10) days after eligibility for representation or during July following the effective date of the Agreement that such dues are not to be deducted. Such monies shall be transmitted to the Union.

Union membership dues shall not be deducted from the paychecks of employees who notify the Employer expressly and individually in writing that such dues are not to be deducted. Employees who are included in the collective bargaining unit, but decline membership, as stated above, shall be required to pay, in lieu of union dues, a fair share fee equal to the part of the union dues that the union is entitled to be paid under applicable federal and state law for representing the non-member employees in matters of collective bargaining, grievance and contract administration. The fair share fee will be deducted automatically from the wages of each non-member employee beginning with the effective date of this Agreement, in twenty-four (24) equal amounts for so long as the non-member employee is not a member of the Union. Such monies shall be transmitted to the Union.

The Union shall annually certify in writing the current and proper amount of its membership dues and fair share fee, at least thirty (30) days prior to the initial deduction. The union shall provide to the employer written notice thirty (30) days prior to any fair share fee deduction, and annually thereafter, an affidavit which states the amount of the fair share fee (which shall not exceed the amount of the dues uniformly required to be paid by members of the Union) together with an audit by an independent certified public accountant clearly setting forth the method by which the fair share fee was calculated, including a list of the major categories of the union's budgeted expenses specifying which expenses were included and excluded in determining the fair share fee. The union shall provide to each non-member employee identified to the union by the employer a notice which shall include a copy of the current affidavit described above and a statement that the amount of the fair share fee may be challenged by the non-member employee (1) through the union’s internal appeal procedure, culminating in arbitration, by sending a letter to the union by certified or registered mail or hand delivery. (2) by filing a request for decision with the Louisville Labor-Management Committee, with a copy to the union, or (3) after completing either of the aforementioned then the employee may file a complaint against the union in a court of competent jurisdiction. The notice shall state the manner in which a non-member employee may obtain a copy of the union’s internal appeal procedure or file a request for decision with the Louisville Labor-Management Committee.

All challenges must be in writing and must be mailed, delivered or filed not later than sixty (60) days after receipt by the non-member employee of the notice. Upon receipt of a challenge, the union shall deposit into an interest-bearing escrow account, separate from all other union funds, the amount of all fair share fee payments received on behalf of the challenging non-member employee that is placed in issue by the challenge. The escrow agreement for the escrow account shall provide that the escrowed funds shall be released from the escrow account only in compliance with the terms of an ultimate arbitration award, Louisville Labor-Management Committee decision or final judgment of a court, including any appeals, or by the terms of a mutually agreeable settlement between the union and the challenging non-member employee.

The final amount of the fair share fee as determined by the arbitration award, Louisville Labor-Management Committee decision or judgment of a court shall reflect only those expenses affirmatively related to representing the non-member employee in matters of collective bargaining, grievance and contract administration. The union shall have the burden of proving such affirmative relation. The union shall provide to the arbitrator, Louisville Labor-Management Committee, or court, as applicable, all financial and other records of the union deemed relevant by the adjudicating body.

2. The Employer will submit to the Union an electronic file for each payroll period listing all bargaining unit employees. The union will submit an electronic file to the Employer for each payroll period listing the employees for which dues shall be deducted. The electronic file shall contain the employee full name and employee identification number. The union will scan and remit electronically a copy of the signed dues authorization form for any employee that dues are to be deducted. After the initial dues authorization forms have been remitted to the Employer, only new additional authorization forms shall be scanned and remitted.

The union shall indemnify and save harmless the Employer and its members, officers, employees and agents against any liability that may arise out of or by reason of any action taken by the Employer consistent with the foregoing provisions relating to the fair share fee and membership dues deduction, including reasonable attorney's fees. In the event the employee should be held liable or responsible for repayment of any fair share fee or membership dues amounts paid to the union pursuant to the Agreement, the union shall reimburse such monies to the Employer.

3. Courier Service The Union shall have the right to use the district courier service to communicate with employees covered by this Agreement. shall not continue to work past the date indicated in the attending physician's statement.

2. Medical Leave of absence may be granted for a period of one (1) work year or less and
